HAND-BOOK OF TREES & HARDY PLANTS

GERMANTOWN :: PHILADELPHIA, PA.

An Unusual Horticultural Establishment Composed of Experts

E want to hear from everyone who has the least interest in horticulture. We can give help and advice of a kind distinct from any other horticultural establishment in this country. It has been 56 years since we established this business, and during that period the great amount of work that has been accomplished, and the experience gained has brought almost to perfection our methods of satisfactorily serving the thousands of plant lovers who come to us for advice and information year after year.

In our various departments we have men who have devoted all their lives to the plant world—some graduates of the famous Kew Gardens, England, and others who are well known in the horticultural “press” of to-day.

We will consider it a pleasure to give the very best advice to all who may wish information. Where it may be necessary we will suggest the most economical means of furthering any particular project that may be under consideration.

It is through this co-operation that we have to-day many thousands of well-pleased customers, but we do not wish you to think that this invitation is given with only the selfish desire of furthering our business interests.

A letter directed to the Special Information Department will come directly before those who will be in a position to give the very best practical advice and suggestions.

Write us to-day.

The dainty, Star blossoms of the dwarf Magnolia Stellata.
The first to open and exhale their fragrance.

Our New Handbook

THE PURPOSE of this book is to give to our thousands of customers and friends a convenient and accurate reference book on hardy plants which may be had from us this season.

It is revised to date, giving current prices and sizes on all our hardy plants. You will see in going through it the immense collection of trees, shrubs, evergreens, and other hardy plants we have growing on our nurseries.

This book does not give detailed descriptions of the plants. To those contemplating planting, who wish more information we shall be pleased to mail our descriptive catalogue of last autumn of which a limited number still remain.

It has been our experience that when descriptions of plants are desired, more special information is usually wanted, necessitating special correspondence.

To those who may be so situated we extend an invitation to write our Special Information Department.

Read on the opposite page the purpose of this department and our desire to have all in need of horticultural information to write us in detail.

We are here to serve the interests of all wishing garden help.

What Kind of a Tree Should I Plant?

The desire for trees for special purposes and effects suggests a grouping of kinds for specific purposes for the information of our many customers and friends.

Though these groups do not aim to answer all questions which may arise they will no doubt be found helpful and suggestive.

Where you still are in doubt; do not hesitate, but sit down and write our "Special Information Department." It will give you specific help.

In Jersey Beauty we see the exquisite form of the single rose. Note the characteristic Wichuraiana foliage.

WICHURAIANA or MEMORIAL ROSES.

If we could show all our flower-loving friends the great beauty of the flowers and foliage of these grand roses they would be planted without further description or question.

They are suitable, too, for so many and variable situations that almost all grounds should have at least one.

Use them on the porch, trellis, pergola, fence or arbor, where they will quickly form a bower, or place them where they will clamber over rocks or stone walls. Their uses are without number.

Here are the very choicest and the plants are second to none. We doubt if they can be duplicated elsewhere.

In addition to the great variety of colors and forms in which the flowers come, the foliage of all is immune from the attack of insects and remains perfect throughout the season.

Wichuraiana, True type. Single white flowers of striking beauty.

Alberic Barbier, Double white. Handsome foliage.

Dorothy Perkins, Double shell pink. Glorious.

Evergreen Gem, Double buff color. Fragrant. Rich foliage.

Gardenia, Yellow opening cream. Double.

Jersey Beauty, Single buff flower of large size. Excellent foliage.

Lady Gay, Similar to Dorothy, but a trifle more intense in color.

Pink Roamer, Pretty single pink flowers, with silvery white centers.

Rene Andre, Semi-double, pink suffused deep pink and red.

South Orange Perfection, Double soft blush pink. Pompon flowers.

Universal Favorite, Large, double clear pink.

All above in big, healthy plants in 5-inch pots, 50 cents.

TREE ROSES.

Uncommon and yet decidedly beautiful are the tree roses we offer this season. Those we sent out last year pleased our customers immensely. This year they are as strong and vigorous as ever.

The possibilities these plants have for formal purposes are many. Use them in the formal garden, on the lawn, in the border, or among the roses. They claim attention wherever they are seen.

You will get a good display of bloom from these plants this season.

Crimson Rambler, Bright red cluster rose.

Gloire de Dijon, Double cream yellow.

Gen. Jacqueminot, Old-fashioned, double rich red.

La France, Fragrant pink, bud rose.

HYBRID PERPETUAL or JUNE ROSES.

The large, full flowers of the June Roses with their strong, sturdy stems account for their great popularity.

Of easy culture and thriving in almost any location, when good rich soil is supplied, they are the perfection of health.

Frau Karl Druschki, New, double white. Beautiful.

General Jacqueminot, Old-fashioned, double, rich red.

Magna Charta, Extra large, deep pink. Fragrant.

Mrs. R. G. Sharman Crawford, Deep rosy pink, shaded pale flesh.

Rhododendron maximum, Native Rhododendron.

In early July, after all the other Rhododendrons have finished flowering, the light pink blossoms of this grand native species, "maximum," comes into flower. The huge trusses of blossoms are decidedly attractive. The foliage of maximum is distinct from the others. The leaves are longer and so healthy and vigorous in appearance as to make it decidedly ornamental all the year round. In the mountains near Mt. Pocono we have some of the finest native Rhododendrons growing that can be found anywhere. Big, healthy plants, with good roots, fine foliage and plenty of buds. They are plants to be proud of. DECIDUOUS HEDGES.

With these plants there is an excellent opportunity to have an ornamental hedge that will be something more than a dividing line. Properly pruned, they will produce a grand display of flowers.

The height will indicate very largely their general style of growth, and all are available for hedge purposes.

Berberis Thunbergii. Japanese Barberry (3 to 4 ft.).

Where a good dwarf, bushy hedge is desired there is no shrub to compare with this. The attractive foliage, which takes on such a bright red fall coloring, and during the winter the scarlet berries, all help to make it very ornamental.

Bulbous and Tuberous Rooted Plants

What possibilities there are with plants of this kind and all secured at very little expense or effort.

The Dahlias require only planting, occasional care and staking, and the same is true of Lilies, Gladiolas and Hyacinthus.

Brighten your garden with some of the choice varieties we offer this spring.

NEWEST AND BEST DAHLIAS.

35 cents each; 10 for $3.00; $25.00 per 100.

Burbank. New, rich, dazzling red of great value. Cactus type.

Comrade. Beautiful fawn color at the base, shading to pink at the tips. Long stems and excellent for cutting. A fine new cactus variety.

Flora. A grand, pure white cactus Dahlia of great size. Excellent for cutting.

Goldsmith. A fancy Dahlia. Yellow, striped and edged crimson.

Miss Minnie McCullough. Soft yellow, overlaid with bronze, gives this a beautiful salmon shade. Exquisite under artificial light.

CACTUS DAHLIAS.

This beautiful class of Dahlias with their artistic, narrow-pointed florets, are perhaps the choicest of all kinds.

20 cents each; 10 for $1.50; $12.00 per 100.

Earl of Pembroke. Rich, deep, velvety plum.

Floradora. Brilliant scarlet-crimson. Fine form.

Gabriel. Cream-white and crimson. Changeable.

J. H. Jackson. Deep maroon; underlaid with deep crimson.

Kriemhilde. Showy pink shading to white center. Long stems for cutting.

Mrs H. J. Jones. Rich scarlet, petals tipped white.

Spotless Queen. Pure white and flowers abundantly.

Standard Bearer. Fiery scarlet. Perfect form. Excellent.

Volker. The finest clear lemon-yellow.

DECORATIVE DAHLIAS.

This class is a most beautiful one and the form partaking of the cactus and show type but yet quite distinct. All are well formed with broad petals. Excellent for cutting.

20 cents each; 10 for $1.50; $12.00 per 100.

Admiral Dewey. A free-flowering, rich purple.

Blue Oban. The nearest approach to a true blue Dahlia.

Catharine Duer. Newport's favorite. Bright, iridescent crimson-scarlet.

Eureka. Quilled deep rose. Large and delicate in shade.

Frank L. Bassett. Carmine purple, shading deeper at the center.

Henry Patrick. Large, pure white. Long stems, perfect form.

Lyndhurst. Bright scarlet. Full center, long stems.

Mrs. Chas. Turner. Immense, pure yellow.

Sylvia. A giant-flowered Nymphaea. White shaded to soft pink on the edge.

Wm. Agnew. Intense glistening scarlet-crimson. Immense size and perfect form. Excellent.

NEW GIANT DAHLIAS.

These are the peers among Dahlias for size and should be numbered among every collection.

Cuban Giant. Dark glowing crimson shaded maroon. Flowers 6 to 7 inches in diameter.

25 cents each; 10 for $2.00; $18.00 per 100.

Pendent. Early and profuse flowering Dahlia. Large, bright crimson-maroon.

25 cents each; 10 for $2.00; $18.00 per 100.

Yellow Duke. Immense, canary yellow. A grand variety for cutting.

35 cents each; 10 for $3.00; $25.00 per 100.

SHOW DAHLIAS.

These are the full, globular and invariably quilled varieties. They are decidedly beautiful and most prolific bloomers.

20 cents each; 10 for $1.50; $12.00 per 100.

Arabella. Pale yellow. Tipped with old rose.

A. Pfefferhorn. Well formed, rosy crimson.

Black Diamond. Immense flower. Rich, velvety maroon, shaded jet black.

Emily. Very large white, shaded lavender.

John Thorpe. Soft, rich pink flower of fine form.

Lemon Beauty. Long stemmed flower of a soft lemon yellow.

Paul's Scarlet. One of the brightest scarlets.

Red Hussar. Excellent intense scarlet.

$5.00 per 100.

LILIES.

Pot-Grown.

A most beautiful display of the very choicest Lilies is within the grasp of all who can avail themselves of this special opportunity.

Fall is the accepted time in which to set out Lily bulbs. We, however, get in at that time a full supply of the very finest bulbs and carefully pot them and store them away for the winter.

In the spring they are all well rooted and ready to make a strong, healthy growth and flower abundantly.

Here is a collection of none but the finest varieties. All large-sized, selected bulbs and ready to grow at the first sign of warm weather.

Lilium auratum. Gold-banded Lily of Japan. A large, pure white lily of exquisite form, having little points of crimson all over the inner face and a golden band along the centre of each petal. Very fragrant.

A Clean, Pure Grass Seed

You may go to many Seed Stores and buy from many sources before you'll ever find a grass mixture the equal of

MEEHANS' PEERLESS GRASS SEED.

It is clean and pure. We know that, as we mix each and every ounce in our own seed rooms from clean, extra fine seed.

Our mixing formula, too, is the result of many years testing to get the best possible seed combination.

There are 20 pounds of honest seeds in every bushel.

Place your order right away for your needs this Spring.

Have You a Shaded Lawn?

If so, why not get a good growth of grass on it by sowing a mixture that contains the proper kinds of grasses?

Some grasses flourish as well in shade or partial shade as the Kentucky Blue does in the sun.

Meehans' Shady Lawn Grass Seed is just such a mixture. It is a combination of grass seeds known to do well in the shady spot, so often the one trying condition connected with the beautification of the lawn.

We mix this special grass seed in our own seed rooms and therefore know its real value.

Better decide now how much you'll need this Spring, and order at once.

Get your grass seed in early, and reap the benefit from the early Spring showers.

Rich Plant Foods

Is your lawn or garden starved?

If it is, why not feed it with some good, rich food? In Bone Meal and Wood Ashes you have concentrated plant food.

When applied they become at once available, producing results immediately. Both are easily applied and carry with them no litter.

But best of all, you know positively you are not spreading future trouble in the form of weed seeds—an evil always present in stable manure.

The sour lawn is made new again with Wood Ashes, containing as it does a goodly quantity of wood lime. It is also rich in potash and phosphoric acid—both valuable food for plants.

Bone Meal is and always will be looked upon as a highly satisfactory plant food.

In both of these fertilizers we have the highest quality brand to offer.

Ours are clean, pure and unadulterated. No foreign material creeps in to give false weight.

The Wood Ashes, too, are unleached and sure to give the best possible results.

Get in your needs for use early in the Spring.

Have YOU Meehans' Mallow Marvels In Your Garden?

NOT one garden should be without some of Meehans' Mallow Marvels. Could you but see them in flower, you would want them on your grounds, and it would be unnecessary for us to speak of their many merits.

It is not a passing novelty or a "special" for the Spring, but a new, gorgeous perennial, surpassing all other hardy plants in every respect, save probably fragrance.

Anyone may be successful with them. The fleshy roots grow in all kinds of soils, though having a preference for a deep, rich soil.

In one season the plants develop into bushes 5 to 8 feet high, and as bushy, with very attractive foliage.

The real treat comes, however, in late July, when the blossoms begin to open.

Do you realize what size a flower is that measures 10 inches in diameter? Many of these flowers are that size, the majority being 8 to 10 inches across.

Colors too, they come in to suit everyone's taste. The rich fiery crimson, the deep blood-red, soft pinks of all shades, and pure white, having a vivid red eye.

This magnificent show of flowers continues often until Autumn frosts, giving a show just at a time when color in the hardy garden or border is badly needed.

The Mallow Marvels are hardy everywhere, doing equally as well in Canada as in Florida.

Plant them on your grounds this Spring. There are many places where they will give distinctive effects.

They are at home in the shrub or perennial border. The hardy garden, the circular bed at the drive turn, along a stream's course, on the edge of a woodland, in fact a hundred spots which may suggest themselves to the lover of flowers.

Our big two-year old roots will give a grand display of flowers this season.

From the three-year, extra heavy roots, a wealth of bloom may be expected.

Order early, now—and prepare for a rare treat this Summer.
